MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting at JRC on SAC OPOD 1009

1. JRC convened a meeting at the Pentagon on 16 February 1967 of SAC, Air Staff, JRC and CIA personnel to discuss updating of subject operations order.

2. Personnel present:

B/Gen. Ralph D. Steakley, JRC*
Col. Salvador E. Felices, JRC
Col. James R. Riley, AFXOPFR

Lt. Col. Bernard L. Bailey, AFRDR
Lt. Col. Ernest R. Hardin, AFXOPFR
Maj. Heyser, SAC
Maj. Roure, SAC

*Present for only part of the meeting.

3. Col. Felices chaired the meeting and stated the purpose was to update SAC OPOD 1009 to an efficient, workable document.

4. [redacted] stated that OSA had previously agreed in general [redacted] (30 August 1966) with the proposed plan except for the time at which CIA U-2 assets would come under the operational control of SAC. This OSA disagreement has its basis in the original agreement between CIA and USAF.

5. Col. Felices suggested that SAC prepare a new operations order and he would prepare a letter to accompany the order to the CIA requesting CIA concurrence in a mutual change to the old agreement regarding the time that SAC would obtain operational control of the U-2 aircraft.

6. Gen. Steakley and Col. Felices felt that the TACKLE assets should also come under the proposed order.

[redacted] read a memo dated 19 September 1963 regarding a conversation between Col. Geary (AFRDR) and Mr. Cunningham (CIA). From the tone of the memo, there was mutual agreement by CIA and the USAF at that time that TACKLE assets were not retrievable by SAC. Col. Felices suggested SAC include in their proposed operations order a contingency for use of TACKLE assets in the event of SAC assumption of CIA U-2 assets.

7. At the conclusion of the meeting, it was determined that SAC would prepare a proposed OPORD 1009 and JRC would prepare a document requesting, with the necessary rationale, a change in the old agreement as to when SAC would assume control of CIA U-2 assets. Both documents would then be sent to the CIA for review.
